

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JOHN SCHELLING,

Defendant.

4:23CR3109

ORDER

Defendant has moved to continue the pretrial motion deadline, (Filing No. 21), because Defendant and defense counsel need additional time to fully review the discovery. The motion to continue is unopposed. Based on the showing set forth in the motion, the court finds the motion should be granted. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) Defendant's motion to continue, (Filing No. 21), is granted.
- 2) Pretrial motions and briefs shall be filed on or before January 23, 2024.
- 3) The conference call previously scheduled to be held on December 13, 2023, is continued. A telephonic conference with counsel will be held before the undersigned magistrate judge at 11:00 a.m. on January 30, 2024 to discuss setting any pretrial motion hearing needed, a change of plea hearing, or the date of the jury trial and deadlines for disclosing experts as required under Rule 16. Counsel for all parties shall use the conferencing instructions provided by the court to participate in the call.
- 4) The ends of justice served by granting the motion to continue outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, and the additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, the time between today's date and January 30, 2024 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because this case remains “unusual and complex,” and continues to be exempted from the time restrictions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161 (h)(7)(B)(ii). Failing to timely object to this order as provided under this court’s local rules will be deemed a waiver of any right to later claim the time should not have been excluded under the Speedy Trial Act.

Dated this 7th day of December, 2023.
